Another freak in the weather occurred shortly after noon today when rain fell in the Long avenue district, but no rain fell in the up-town area. It was not a hard rain, and didn't cool it off much, one lady reported.

Report is made to Pa New that a swarm of bees landed on a tree near the corner of the Hileman apartments at Wallace avenue and North Jefferson street, Saturday night and remained over night. On Sunday morning the swarm moved off.

Featuring the sesqui program at the service at the Neshannock Presbyterian church at New Wilmington on Sunday was use of the type of collection basket in service in the old church over half a century ago. The collection baskets were attached to a long stick, and were passed through the pews with the usher retaining hold on the stick. It was quite a novelty.

One of The News small paper carriers, a girl, tells Pa New a sad incident. On Saturday afternoon, about 2:30, she lost twenty dollars somewhere between Croton and

Administration Is Worried Over Byrnes' Attack

Former Secretary of State Assails Truman's Program For "Welfare State"

By WILLIAM E. ZIMMERMAN (U. S. Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, June 20.—The administration is worried today over what effect the attack by former Secretary of State Byrnes will have on President Truman's domestic program.

Byrnes' week-end charge that the administration plans a "welfare state" fanned the southern Democratic revolt against Mr. Truman's social plan and brought concern to Democratic chiefs.

Most of the fear is held over what damage the former cabinet officer's blast will have on housing and aid-to-education legislation. Byrnes did not mention any specific issues, but these bills are two of the most controversial administration measures scheduled for action in this session of Congress.

Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, president of Columbia university, earlier struck a blow at the education measure when he announced his opposition last week to federal aid to the states.

"Timely Warning"

A powerful southern Democratic leader called the Byrnes address Saturday in Lexington, Va., a "timely warning."

Sen. George (D) Ga., chairman of the Senate finance committee, said that the talk would make Congress "go slow" on many of Mr. Truman's "must" requests for economic legislation.

Republican leaders hailed the Byrnes speech as likely to solidify the GOP-southern Democratic coalition.

Steal Auto As Owner Sleeps In Back Seat

PHILADELPHIA, June 20.—(INS)—Two brothers were under arrest today on charges of stealing an automobile whose owner was sleeping in the back seat.

Frank Maricco, 32, told police it was too hot for sleeping in the back seat of the car in front of his home. He awoke to find two strangers driving.

"I thought I was dreaming at first, but when I realized it was the real thing, I opened the door, jumped out and ran," he said.

He called police who sent out an alarm. Two officers in a patrol car spotted the automobile in North Philadelphia and arrested the occupants after a short chase. They were identified as Carl Price, 21, and his brother, James, 23,

Two Are Dead Result Of Fire

CHARLEROI, Pa., June 20.—Branch Walker, 70, and Monroe Goodwin, 27, died in Charleroi last night in a fire caused by an exploding kerosene lamp.

Mrs. Cora Smith, their landlady, and her daughter, Thelma, escaped injury.

Walker was killed when he leaped from a second story window, while Goodwin was in bed when the flames ate through the house.

Epworth Church Members Begin Jubilee Week

Special Features Mark Opening Program—Tonight Is "Recognition Night"

With the church auditorium filled Sunday morning, the 75th anniversary of Epworth Methodist church opened. The "Diamond Jubilee" will continue every night this week, excepting Saturday.

Rev. Albert C. Howe, pastor of the church, delivered the opening sermon, taking as his subject "Thy Father's House." In it he said, "a church is not just four walls. It takes faith and works to hold a church together and the future of this church will be just as big as you want it to be."

Dedicate Gifts

Two jubilee gifts to the church were dedicated. A pair of altar candlesticks and an American flag in a service in which both pastor and congregation took part.

The candlesticks were the gift of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Baker and Mr. and Mrs. J. Garfield Davis in memory of the late Rev. C. J. Baker, a former pastor of Grace M. E. In the words of Rev. Howe, Rev. Baker was a "pioneer in Methodism."

The American flag was presented by Jacob F. Rentz. Both gifts were received in a ritualistic service in which the congregation and pastor joined.

Gracing the altar for the opening service of the jubilee were baskets of flowers. Special music was provided by the vested choir.

Recognize Officials

Tonight will be "Recognition Night." Officials and workers of the church will be recognized for the work done over the years. The speaker will be Dr. Harold A. McCurdy, of Jamestown, N. J., district superintendent of the Jamestown district who is a former pastor of Epworth. Refreshments will follow the service.

Tuesday night will be Fellowship Night. This service will be joined with a tureen dinner in the dining room of the church. The speaker will be Dr. William A. Thornston, now of Erie, a former pastor of Epworth.

Cheswick Contractor Low Bidder On Motor Vehicle Storage Building

Contract for the motor vehicle storage building to be erected at Cunningham Armory has been awarded to the Grooms Construction Company, of Cheswick, Pa., at their bid of $54,585.

The building, construction of which will be financed with Federal funds, will be built of concrete and steel, with asbestos roof. Work is expected to get underway on the project in the near future and will likely be completed this summer.

At present, the motor vehicles of the 22nd Field Artillery have been housed on the old stables, and on the drill floor. When all units planned have been built here, the old stable section in the rear of the building will become a machine shop while the storage buildings will extend around the back and one side of the Armory.

Contracts were also let for similar structures at Williamstown, Everett, and Piquette, Mich., the local building being the largest unit of the four.

Union Volunteers Fight Two Blazes

Union Township Volunteer Fire Department was called out in the early hours of Sunday morning to fight two small fires.

A short circuit in the car owned by LeRoy Munson, R. D. 2, caused extensive damage to the rear of the car and back upholstery. The fire occurred about 2:30 and caused $450 damage. The loss was covered by insurance.

A manure pile near a shed owned by Joe Carbone of 235 Smithfield St. caught fire around four o'clock in the morning and threatened the building filled with the new crop of hay. There was no damage done to the building. The fire was caused by spontaneous combustion.

Two Are Injured In Plane Crash Here

Wreckage of the private plane in which Robert Cooney and Arnold Blews, both of East New Castle, were seriously injured Saturday evening. The plane crashed in the lawn at the home of Miss Florence Schumacker at Gardner only a short distance from the Shenango airport where the plane had taken off.

When a plane failed to gain altitude fast enough and struck the top of a tree about 5 o'clock Saturday afternoon, it nose-dived into the yard at the home of Miss Florence Schumacker at Gardner, south of the New Castle-Elwood City highway a few miles east of this city. The pilot and a passenger, both of whom were injured, were taken to the New Castle hospital. The plane fortunately did not take fire. It was badly damaged.

The injured: Robert Cooney, aged 31, R. D. 2; fracture of left ankle, laceration of lower lip, contusions of left wrist, possibly fractured; head and facial injuries.

Thousands Of Miners Return To Pits Today

PITTSBURGH, June 20.—(INS)—Thousands of miners across the nation returned to the pits early today after a one-week "stabilizing holiday."

United Mine Workers officials reported that about 450,000 miners heeded the request of UMW President John L. Lewis who told the men to return for a week's work before their annual ten-day vacation June 25.

Lewis this week has three conferences scheduled with separate groups of coal operators. Tuesday wage discussions are listed for Bluefield, W. Va., with the southern operators.

A big bloc of northern and western operators will sit down with the UMW president at White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., and a Thursday talk with "captive" operators is scheduled for Pittsburgh. It may, however, be shifted to White Sulphur Springs.

Bus Driver Held After Accident Taking Three Lives

NEWPORT, Pa., June 20.—(INS)—The driver of an empty Greyhound bus which collided with an automobile causing the deaths of three members of one family and injuries to two others was held today under $4,000 bond.

Raymond Clarke, 33, of Pittsburgh, driver of the Pittsburgh-Harrisburg bus, was hailed by state police before Justice of the Peace W. J. Flickinger and charged with assault and battery by automobile.

He was placed under bond pending the outcome of a coroner's inquest which has yet to be scheduled.

The collision occurred Saturday night on a wet curve on the highway east of Newport.

Fatally injured were nine-year-old David Boring of Huntingdon; Gaius Boring, 58, of Mapleton, Pa., an uncle, and his 14-year-old son Harry.

Taken to the Harrisburg hospital were the father of David Elby Boring, 53, of Huntingdon, and Mrs. Theresa Boring, wife of the dead man.

Foreign Ministers Conclude Paris Conference Today

Report Accord Has Been Reached On Major German And Austrian Issues

AGREEMENTS TO BE MADE PUBLIC

By KINGSBURY SMITH European General Manager, I. N. S.

PARIS, June 20.—The Big Four council of foreign ministers wound up its month-long deliberations on Germany and Austria today, reaching what authoritative sources said was an agreement on all major issues.

The accord was reached in a secret session lasting only 40 minutes and will be made public tonight.

It reportedly makes the blockade-lifting in Berlin "effective and permanent."

Concessions Made

Well-informed sources said the Soviets made far-reaching concessions on Austria, including recognition of Austrian law as governing Soviet-operated properties, eliminating the danger of Russian expropriation.

Deputies are being instructed to complete drafting a peace treaty for Austria by Sept. 1. They will meet in London on June 30 for this purpose.

This correspondent was inside the "pink palace" during today's secret session, having walked in without anyone stopping him.

After the closed meeting ended, U. S. Secretary of State Dean Acheson, accompanied by British Foreign Secretary Bevin and several aides, entered the bar.

Requested To Leave

When Acheson spotted me, he instructed Charles E. Bohlen, state department Russian expert, to request me to leave until the plenary session has begun.

Soviet Foreign Minister Vishinsky left the "pink palace" with several of his aides immediately after the closed meeting, causing a flurry of excitement among correspondents and cameramen on the sidewalks.

It appeared, however, that he merely was taking an automobile ride between the two sessions.

Deputies of the big four met at the "pink palace" off the Champs Elysees at 10 a. m. to draft a formal communique.

This will be approved at a secret session of the top ministers and made public later in the day at a plenary meeting to which correspondents and photographers will be admitted.

There's a spot I know where I'd like to be, a spot that is lovely and cool, where the elders nod on a little bank that hangs by a limpid pool. The trees have canopied all of it, and the sun seldom touches the water, and that's the place where I'm going to go, if the days keep getting hotter. A pair of you will find on me, for this is the weather that calls for them, today it is ninety three.

Less Reading In Summer Time Says
Local Librarian
People Read Same Type Of Books
In Summer Only Fewer Of Them, Survey Indicates
"What do people read in summer?" asks the inquiring reporter of the librarian.
"By the large, about the same things they read during the other seasons, but less of it," was the reply of Miss Alice Sterling, librarian.
This is accounted for by the fact that more traveling, golfing, gardening and other work on the home grounds, and more play on in summer than in the other seasons. School and college terms are over. Most cultural clubs close their year's work in summer. Fewer books therefore are borrowed from the library.
Few Factors Help
A few factors help to offset this summer slump in circulation, such as summer school and college students, playground teachers, and readers of the books discussed in the Great Books forum. Some vacationists also take books with them on trips.
There is no noticeable change in the type or character of the books borrowed in summer, only in the number.
The public library will gladly help you map your summer reading if you want books in any special field of human endeavor.
The children's reading is encouraged by means of reading clubs. A record of each child's reading is kept in a small booklet at the library. After he has read two books he is given a button showing that he is a member of the Library Reading club. After he has read the required number of books he is given his booklet with the record of books read. Any child who reads is welcome to join the Library Reading club.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Anderson, 1313 Neshannock Blvd., this city, and Mr. Warren is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles G. Warren, Sharon, New Castle road.

Escorted by her father, W. R. Anderson, former Farrell High School principal, the bride was lovely in her gown which was fashioned with an accordion pleated pinafore effect, wide fitted waist band, long sleeves tapered at the wrists, and a bouffant hoop skirt which terminated in a graceful train. Her imported veil of illusion was attached to a bonnet of Chantilly lace and she carried a colonial bouquet of snapdragons, carnations, sweet peas, roses, and stephanotis, centered with an orchid.

Rev. James A. Gaiser officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with white gladioli, carnations, and snapdragons, with an effective background of palms and ferns, lighted by two seven-branch candelabra.

Preceding the bride in the colorful procession were maid of honor, Miss Barbara Jean Sarchett, Sharon, and bridesmaids, Miss Geraldine Schmidt, Sharpville, and the bride's cousin, Miss Gay Anderson, of Youngstown.

William B. Anderson, the bride's brother, was best man for Mr. Warren, and ushering were the groom's cousin, John R. Willson III, and William Dunston, both of Sharon.

At the organ was Edwin C. Lewis, who accompanied the bride's uncle, E. J. Hasselman, Mt. Lebanon, when he sang "Because" and "At Dawning."

Following the exchange of vows, a reception for 150 guests was held in the church parlors. Miss Mary Louise Willson, the groom's aunt from Sharon, and Mrs. Conrad F. Trowbridge, the bride's aunt from Merion, Pa., presided at the buffet table.

The young couple departed for a honeymoon in the Pocono Mountains. Upon their return, they will reside temporarily at the home of the bride's parents.

The plane took off, but failed to gain sufficient altitude to clear a wooded section of the Schumaker place which abuts a quarter mile from the airport. The right wing of the plane sheared off the top of a tall tree. The plane spun around then nose-dived to the ground.

It struck nose first, the engine being jammed back, the panel board being wrecked and plane otherwise being damaged badly.

Blews, riding in the rear seat, was thrown over the pilot, but neither was thrown clear of the plane.

Howard E. Walker and his son, Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Shaffer Gardner residents, who were conversing on a dirt road, near where the plane crashed, witnessed the accident.

Pearson streets, on Washington. The money is urgently needed by The News girl and she hopes that some honest person found the money.

Pa Newc witnessed a minor accident Sunday, that could have had serious consequence. As a result of carelessness, a child and mother were thrown from an automobile at the corner of Butler avenue and Ray street. The auto made the turn off Ray street onto Butler avenue at a high rate of speed, throwing the child against the door, which opened. The mother, attempting to stop the child from falling, was thrown from the car. Neither were hurt beyond a few bruises.

Acheson is expected to leave for Washington immediately afterward aboard President Truman's personal plane "Independence".

Western delegate members attending the conference generally are optimistic over the agreement reached and caution only that Russia's performance in keeping her promises will be the real test of whatever comes out of the conference.

They said, however, that the limited accord achieved is far more than had been hoped for and may lead to the beginning of the end of the east-west cold war.

lition that is opposing the President on some key points of his legislative program.

Such a view was taken by Sen. Bridges (R) N. H., ranking GOP member of the Senate appropriations committee. Bridges said: "It is extremely significant when a man the President once appointed as top man in his cabinet feels so deeply about the administration trends toward state socialism."

Become Economic Slaves

What Justice Byrnes has said so well points up the obvious state socialism of the Truman domestic program.

Byrnes, who left the cabinet in January, 1947, apparently on the best terms with Mr. Truman, lashed out at much of the administration's domestic program in an address at Washington and Lee university. He declared:

Card Of Thanks

We wish to thank our friends, neighbors and relatives for the kindness and sympathy extended us during the illness and death of our father and husband, Lawrence Heichel. Also for beautiful flowers and cars donated.

YMCA Secretary Attends National Council Session

Robert L. Meermans At Three-Day Meeting In Washington; National Program Expands

Robert L. Meermans, general secretary of the New Castle YMCA, has returned from Washington, D. C., where he attended the annual meeting of the Y national council. The three-day event started Friday and was completed Sunday at the Hotel Statler.

Mr. Meermans was honored by his fellow workers in the area and selected as a representative of the central west district of Pennsylvania. It was the first national council meeting ever attended by a New Castle man.

Highlights of Report
Highlights of the past year's "Y" activities reported by R. L. Meermans upon his return are:

"The American YMCA now is serving 3,500,000 young people, an all-time high in the organization's 98-year-old history.
The enrollment was composed of 2,700,000 regular members plus 800,000 other registered participants.

"Seventy new YMCA's were organized during the past year to bring the total to 1,583 with a combined operating cost of $102,000,000 a boost of six million dollars over the previous 12-month period. This is the first time the American YMCA's have passed the hundred million mark in annual operating costs and also is a new peak for the number of local associations in the United States.

Greatest Expansion
"With 325 associations having more than $34,000,000 on hand for the construction of new buildings or additions and modernization of present structures, the YMCA is coming into the greatest period of expansion in its history. Campaign plans of 130 other associations call for the raising of an additional $25,000,000 for construction purposes. High building costs are delaying the erection of many new YMCA buildings.

"Total capital investment in YMCA buildings and properties increased to $247,000,000, with endowments climbing to $46,100,000. Attendances at YMCA activities reach astronomical proportions. Physical activities attract total attendances of 30,000,000. Attendances at regularly scheduled clubs and other groups were 73,500,000. Special events, including religious, dramatic and social activities drew attendances of 6,700,000. All represent sizable increases over previous year."

R. L. Meermans paid tribute to the 234,000 board and committee members and other volunteer workers whose loyalty and devoted service, he said, was responsible for the achievements he was able to report.

GARAGE SHORTAGE
FARRELL, Pa., June 20.—(INS)—Shortages of garages has forced city council to drop its plan to ban all-night parking on streets. Automobile owners told city officials they had no other place to keep their cars.

THE PARENT PROBLEM

doesn't sleep better than this first one, well, I dread to think of it." In substance, here is what I replied. Thousands of mothers have had experiences like yours. When a baby is teething or is uncomfortable for any other cause you naturally try to comfort him. To pick him up and rock him is a quick way to do it. After he has slept for a short period and wakened again, the same soothing treatment is resorted to. But being tired and sleepy yourself, you soon have him snuggled up in your bed beside you, after which he may readily sleep the whole night through. Since this has worked so well you are more ready to repeat this procedure the next night and the next, and the baby responds with more and more satisfaction with practice. It's all so natural and simple.

In Own Bed
Then by and by you decide that this procedure should not be permanent. So you resolve to rock him to sleep again and tuck him into his own bed. But his nap is short and he cries for more rocking or to be in bed with you. You decide to let him cry it out. But he cries so long and pitifully that you give up and drag him into bed with you again and the rest of the night is sublime. Next night or the next you resolve again to let him cry it out. You let him cry longer than you ever let him cry before but he finally wins. His rich reward prepares him to cry still longer, if necessary, the next night.

If you really wish to settle this matter, you will make clear to the father and the neighbors your plan and will let the youngster cry himself to sleep if it takes all night, being vigilant to guard against his possible suffocation. Occasionally, speak softly to the child to assure him you are near. Even leave a dim light on outside his partly-open door. But don't take him into bed with you this night or thereafter.

Boy Is Killed
Playing Cowboy
LOOK HAVEN, Pa., June 20.—(INS)—Fourteen-year-old Glen Albright, Look Haven died accidentally Saturday evening while playing "cowboy" in the yard of his home. He was caught in a noose as he fell from a tree on which he had thrown a rope over a limb.

The boy, found by his mother, Mrs. Chester A. Albright, died from a broken neck. Clinton County Coroner Armanella Shoemaker found death due to unavoidable accident.
An older brother, Chester, 18, was killed in a motorcycle accident last October.

PREVENTION OR TROUBLE
Historians tell us that mankind has always had a lot of troubles. We get into a mess and then try to figure on some way to get out of it.
Until recent times people figured that disease was inevitable. Either you got it or you didn't. Nothing could be done, so why worry.
Rickets, schallpox, typhoid, diptheria and other diseases numbered their victims by the millions. Countless women died in child birth because they had rickets in childhood.

Nowadays these diseases may be prevented by taking proper precautions.
By preventing disease people live longer. Now we will have to find out how to prevent or postpone senility.
Perhaps we learn how to keep middle-aged till we are a hundred. Which way to Utopia, please?

Weed Cutting Warnings Given

City Health Director Sends Warnings To Owners Of Vacant Properties

Richard I. Davis, director of the city's health, reports he has forwarded warnings to owners of vacant property notifying the owners that they must cut or have cut all weeds immediately.

He said that if the owners do not comply immediately with the warning the city will have the work done, after which the lot owner will be sued to recover the cost of the operation.

The city adopted an ordinance in 1945 providing that every property owner, tenant, or other person in possession of any property in the city, shall be required to keep noxious weeds cut and destroyed at least twice a year on or before June 15 and again on or before August 15 in each year so as to prevent such weeds from flowering or going to seed.

City Will Do Work

The owners are told in Mr. Davis' notice "that there are now growing on your property certain noxious weeds which have not been cut as provided by ordinance. Unless the weeds are cut immediately the work will be done by the city and the penalty of the ordinance collected to reimburse the city for the cost of doing the work. The ordinance provides a penalty of $300 for each offense. It will be the policy of the city to have weeds cut where property owners do not do so, and to sue the property-owner for so much of the penalty as is necessary to pay the costs of having the weeds cut and the costs of the suit," the notice reads.

THE FAMILY SCRAPBOOK

By DR. ERNEST G. OSBORNE

When They Don't Write

Letters home are often a source of conflict between parents and children. Youngsters go off to camp, to visit grandparents, or to be with friends for a week or two. It's natural, of course, for Mom and Pop to want to hear from their offspring. If the youngsters are away for the first time, this is especially true.

Yet children often find it hard to write. They don't know what to say. They are too busy to stop and struggle with pencil or pen. Or just don't think about it.

Actually, one indication as to whether youngsters are happy or not away from home is to be found in the frequency with which they write. If two or three letters a week come through the mail, one can be reasonably certain that the child is feeling homesick, out of place or otherwise unhappy. Sometimes the recognition of this fact helps parents "take" the lack of letter writing.

A simple suggestion may help to make it easy for the junior member of the family to keep in touch with home base. Address a number of postcards or envelopes to yourself and put them in his bag. You might even write a few alternate messages that he can check and mail home. The first one, for instance, "Arrived at o'clock," "went boating," "hiking," "fed the cows," or any other items that are likely to be appropriate.

JULY 24-30

One of the values in scheduling Farm Safety Week, July 24-30, well in advance of the time to be observed arises from repeated reminders on the need for accident prevention.

The observance would lose its main objective if interest in safety were confined to one week. One of the big lessons to be learned is that safety is a year-round job.

Two slogans are suggested to farm families, "Always Be on the Alert" and "Make Every Week Safety Week."

Safety Week, officially proclaimed by the president is sponsored nationally by the National Safety Council and the U. S. Department of Agriculture, with many farm and related organizations cooperating.

The immediate objective is to emphasize the importance of farm accident prevention and to point out the need for action. The long-range aim is to make all farm families as safe as possible, to cut the annual toll of needless deaths and injuries as much as possible, and to make farm life a safer, happier and more prosperous way of life.

USE CHEMICAL WEED KILLERS WITH CARE

Research men at the Pennsylvania State college advise that all weed killers must be used with care. Several experiments which were viewed at the recent Weed Control Field Day showed marked injury to crops when the wrong materials were used or when too strong a solution was applied.

The use of 2-4-D to control broadleaved weeds in corn and oats has proven very satisfactory. Because the ester form 2-4-D gives off fumes which can injure nearby crops, the amine form is suggested. The ester form is valuable for certain resistant weeds, but is not generally needed in grain fields. 2-4-D should not be used after grain heads out.

Some experiments show that the amine salt of 2-4-D can be used to control weeds in oats without killing the clover. Other experiments show that some type of woody plants can be controlled with a mixture of 2-4-D and 2-4-T.

A new circular "Chemical Weed Control in 1949" may be obtained from the Agricultural Extension office, 206 Post Office building, New Castle.

Books For Summer At Public Library

Good Book And Shady Nook Will Aid In Seeking Summer Pleasures

Summer is an excellent time for reading. Given "a book and a shady nook, either in a door or out" one is furnished against boredom and prepared for research, interest or entertainment, according to his desire or mood.

To help map your summer reading your public library will be glad to provide a list on whatever your interest or hobby may be. Novels are omnipresent and some are choice. How about sports? Such books as:

The Cleveland Indians, by Franklin Lewis.
Chicago Cubs, by Warren Brown.
Boston Red Sox, by Frederick G. Lieb.

Lucky To Be a Yankee, by Joe DiMaggio.
Player-Manager, by Lou Boudreau.
Or memoirs and letters, like these:
England to Me, by Emily Hahn.
Family Circle, by Cornelia Skinner.
Seven Story Mountain, by Thomas Merton.

Trial and Error, by Chaim Weizman.
Look for later lists on other subjects. If your preference is not published be sure to ask the library for books in your field.

TWENTY-FIFTH WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

"I have been invited to a twenty-fifth wedding anniversary party. I have met the host and hostess only a few times. Could you tell me, please, what I should say when I arrive and when I leave. Also must I send a gift?"

Answer: You must send a gift, yes. It should be of silver, but prices being what they are today, anything goes!

When you arrive at the party, go immediately to your host and hostess, shake hands with them and offer them your congratulations and best wishes. Before you leave, go again to say "goodnight" and tell them what a lovely party it was and how glad you were to be included among the guests.

Question: My first cousin is to be married in a formal church wedding this summer, at which I shall be maid-of-honor. I should like to have a party for her but have no idea as to what kind to have. I have always been told that it is not correct for a relative to give the bride-to-be a shower. Please give me some suggestions as to what kind of party would be best.

Answer: You are correct in your statement that you, as the bride's relative should not give her a shower. Give in her honor a cocktail party, a tea, a luncheon or an evening party.

Question: I have been invited to a 5 o'clock wedding. The reception invitation does not state the time. What does this mean?

Answer: Go direct from the church to the place wherein the reception will be held. The reception usually follows the ceremony and it always does when no time is specified in the invitation.

The U. S. consumes more pulp and paper than the rest of the world combined.

New Castle School Teachers Attend Summer Sessions

Some New Castle school teachers are attending summer school at state colleges this summer in search of further degrees.

A Pennsylvania state law passed recently raising the salaries of teachers with degrees has sent some teachers with ten or more years service in the city back to school for the summer. Degrees will be receiving advanced degrees. Among those taking courses at Slippery Rock State Teachers college are: Mrs. Daisy Hurst, Arthur McGill; Miss Margaret Preston, Arthur McGill; Mrs. Ruth Hanna, teacher-elect, and Miss Anna M. Reed, Oak Street.

Taking courses at Westminster college are: William Wallace, Benjamin Franklin junior high school; Lewis Hamelly, Croton; Miss Marie McElroy, Rose avenue, and Mrs. Alice Brunswick, New Castle school nurse.

Mrs. Brunswick has been granted an emergency leave of absence next year to take courses at Pittsburg university.

Other teachers attending sessions at colleges throughout the state will be announced later.

Fireman Hasson On USS Missouri

Samuel Hasson, fireman, USN, son of Mrs. Hazel S. Hasson of 1124 Scioto street, New Castle, Penna., is scheduled to visit Portsmouth, England, and Cherbourg, France, this summer as a member of the crew of the battleship USS Missouri, which will be a part of a ten-ship Midshipmen Practice Cruise Squadron.

Tours to both London and Paris also are being arranged. During the cruise, which is designed to give practical shipboard training to Naval Academy and Reserve Midshipmen, the embryo Naval officers will stand watches and participate in training exercises alongside the regular ship's companies.

Grasshoppers Invade West

Entomologists of the Department of Agriculture are expecting the biggest invasion of grasshoppers west of the Mississippi river this year since 1940. Hordes of the pests are expected to appear in eastern Montana, Wyoming, Colorado, western Nebraska, Kansas and part of Texas, Oklahoma, Iowa, Illinois, Minnesota, Wisconsin and the Dakotas will also come in for serious trouble.

Counter-attacks by farmers will come from the air and the ground by spraying insecticides from airplanes and laying poisoned bait in the breeding places of the insects. Since toxic weapons are dangerous to animals and humans, great care must be taken to see that sprayed crops are not fed to livestock for a proper period after the spraying is done.

C.I.O. And Steel Conference Is Being Resumed

PITTSBURGH, June 20.—(INS)—The CIO United Steelworkers and subsidiaries of the United States Steel Corporation return to the conference table today in Pittsburgh to settle a deadlock over the union's pension demands.

In one of the strangest negotiating conferences in the history of the steelworkers, CIO President Philip Murray, who heads the USW representatives, has asked for discussions on wage boosts, pensions and insurance. But he has not set a figure for any of the three.

John A. Stephens, head of the steel subsidiary bargain, declared he does not believe the contract reopening clause permits discussion of anything but wages, and the conference broke up over that decision last week.

Today's session will be the third between the two parties. About 200,000 employees at six U. S. Steel subsidiaries will be immediately affected by the outcome which probably will set the pattern for an additional 500,000 workers in the steel industry.

Western Berlin Workers Demand Western Marks

BERLIN, June 20.—(INS)—A crowd of 1,000 western Berlin workers stormed the City Hall today to demand conversion of their Soviet zone pay into western marks, which are pegged at four times the value.

Most of the workers were craftsmen who live in the western sector but work in the eastern area and thus receive Soviet-issued currency.

The mob broke through hurriedly formed police lines in an effort to reach the office of Mayor Ernst Reuter. They finally were turned back after 12 were arrested.

Officials said the demonstration apparently was communist-inspired.

ARRESTED, FINED FOR OVERWEIGHT

State police Saturday afternoon arrested William C. Leskoyak, Crafton, Pittsburgh, for hauling more than twice the legal weight of steel on his truck. The arrest was made on the New Wilmington-New Castle highway. The truck carried 91,260 pounds of steel, consigned to a Vandergrift firm. Leskoyak unloaded all except 45,000 pounds at a local plant.

EAST BROOK CHAPTER

East Brook F. F. A. members have attended the Weed Control Field Day, Ag Open House and the F. F. A. Week program at the Pennsylvania State College during the past two weeks.

This week, Jim Kradel, Wm. Reher, Jack Hanna, Richard Hanna and Keith McConnell attended the weed control demonstrations and meetings and the Open House. Guides conducted the hundreds of visitors by bus and on foot over the College Farms and through the agricultural buildings.

The previous week, Wm. Pontius, Jim Kennaday, Robert Hawthorne, Wendell McKissick and Glenn Hill attended the state F. F. A. meetings and the F. F. A. judging events and demonstrations.

On the trips, Mr. Fox, the F. F. A. adviser and the boys made stops or side trips to the Western Penna. Artificial Breeding Co-op at Clarion, Horseshoe Curve at Altoona, the state tuberculosis sanatorium, Cresson, Fisherman's Paradise and the fish hatchery near Bellefonte.

The Chaplain of Rockview penitentiary took the boys on a tour of this state penal institution. The boys were shown through the main cell block, the execution building, workshops, auditorium, dining rooms, library and the prison farms.

Trouble Behind Iron Curtain Is Now Indicated

LONDON, June 20.—(INS)—Diplomatic observers in London said today increasingly frequent reports of purges and prosecutions from every Soviet satellite country indicate "trouble behind the iron curtain".

Russia is believed in some quarters to be tightening her economic and political reins on eastern Europe for the apparently inevitable day when she must withdraw her troops.

Other observers, however, believe that reports from Albania, Hungary, Bulgaria, Romania, Poland and Czechoslovakia clearly show that suspicion of deviations from the Moscow line is behind the political changes and firings.

The recent meeting of the communist in Wroclaw, Poland, was expected to bring new pressure on the rebel Communist leader, Marshal Tito of Yugoslavia.

The cominform apparently also decided, however, to strengthen Communist power in those countries still loyal to Moscow to prevent a recurrence of Titoism.

Reorganization Proposals Are Made By Truman

New Welfare Department
Headed By New Cabinet
Member One Proposal

By ROBERT G. NIXON
(U. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, June 20.—President Truman sent to congress today seven government reorganization plans including a proposal for a new welfare department to be headed by a cabinet officer.

The president acted immediately after signing legislation authorizing him to submit to congress streamlining legislation recommended by the Hoover commission.

House Speaker Rayburn (D) Tex., said after a conference with the president and Democratic congressional leaders that two more reorganization plans will be submitted by the White House.

Under the act signed today, the president's proposals will become effective in 60 days unless rejected by a constitutional majority of either the house or senate. In the senate, a constitutional majority is 49. A similar majority in the house is 218.

Administration forces on Capitol Hill said that under their interpretation of the new reorganization act, congress must remain in session for 60 calendar days in order for the plans to become effective. Should congress adjourn before that time—Aug. 19—they said it may be necessary for the president to resubmit his plans to the next session.

Mr. Truman's seven reorganization proposals were:

1. Reorganization of the Federal Security Agency.
2. Transfer of the bureau of employment security, now in the Federal Security Agency, to the labor department.
3. Reorganization of the post office department with creation of a new post of deputy postmaster general and four assistant postmasters general of equivalent rank to the undersecretaries and assistant secretaries of other departments.

4. Transfer of the National Security Council and the National Security Resources Board to the executive office of the President, placing these two highly-important defense mechanisms directly under White House authority.

5. Provide for unified direction by the chairman of the Civil Service Commission of the executive affairs of the commission. The bipartisan three-member commission remains in effect.

6. Strengthen the administration of the Maritime Commission by making the chairman the chief executive and administrative officer of the commission.

7. Transfer the Public Roads Administration to the department of commerce.

Making Plans For Convention

Preliminary details for the state convention of the Professional Engineering Association were arranged Saturday night at Conneaut Lake.

The midwestern chapter of the association joined with the Pittsburgh chapter for an outing and the convention meeting followed the afternoon outing. Further details will be worked out in the July meeting of the midwestern chapter.

The 1950 convention of the Professional Engineers will be held in New Castle in May.

Pittsburgh Man Dies From Heat

PITTSBURGH, June 20.—(INS)—The heat wave was blamed for the death of a Pittsburgh man today.

He was Julius W. Schlatterbeck, 55, an employee of the National Lead Co. of Pennsylvania.

The victim drove into a gas station and complained to the attendant: "I'm hot. I can't breathe."

He was pronounced dead a few minutes later by a passing physician who listed death as due to a probable heart attack.

Jealous Truck Driver Kills Fellow Worker

ALTOONA, Pa., June 20.—(INS)—Blair County District Attorney J. Calvin Lang said that Frank Eller, 35, Altoona truck driver, would be formally charged today with the murder of another Altoona trucker.

Eller surrendered to police last night following the shooting of James C. Henry, 36.

Police said the slaying climaxed a violent argument between Eller, who lived in a first-floor apartment with his wife of three-months, and Henry, who occupied a third-floor apartment in the same building.

Eller reportedly told police the argument resulted from attentions paid his wife by Henry. Henry was pronounced dead at the Mercy Hospital in Altoona of a shot in the mouth.

Murrysville Mill Destroyed By Fire

MURRYSVILLE, Pa., June 20.—(INS)—Fire last night destroyed the old mill in Murrysville. The century old landmark had attracted thousands of tourists in recent years.

The blaze destroyed the three-story structure and an adjacent stable in less than an hour at an estimated loss of $10,000.

Hecklers Refuse To Let Prelate Speak At Prague

PRAGUE, June 20.—(INS)—A possible open clash between Catholic church and Czech communist government leaders loomed with Archbishop Josef Beran unyielding in his demands for church freedom.

The ranking Catholic prelate in Czechoslovakia avoided what might have been bloody violence Sunday when he left St. Vitus cathedral after hecklers, apparently communists, refused to let him speak.

Boos, cat-calls and whistles rang through the vaulted structure whenever Archbishop Beran opened his mouth to read a ringing pastoral letter outlining his stern opposition to the communist governments actions in church affairs.

CHICAGO, June 20.—(INS)—John Law, 32, is in trouble today with the law.

The unemployed Mr. Law was found napping peacefully on a Chicago loop refuse box when John Law in the form of a police officer roused him with the rap of his nightstick against the sole of Mr. Law's shoe.

The law in the form of police said Mr. Law had been celebrating and when first awakened could not rouse himself sufficiently to sign his John Hancock.

He was booked simply as John Doe. Restored by a night of sleep, John Doe said he was John Law. Mr. Law will appear in court today to face the law.

Thousand Fathers And Sons Share Program Sunday

Altar-Rosary society prepared and served the breakfast in an efficient manner. Salon music was played throughout the breakfast by local musicians, featuring Albert Colella, Larry Veri, and Anthony Frasso.

Long tables were arranged and the Cathedral's dining room was filled to capacity. Fresh spring flowers centered the tables and speakers table. The National Anthem was sung and Rev. Fr. Vincent Bertoline, assistant pastor of St. Vitus church gave the invocation which commenced the program at the Cathedral.

Program Starts

Program Chairman Francis Augustine welcomed the members and guests. He urged all to "follow the principles of Jesus Christ, and to choose between right and wrong."

Toastmaster for the occasion was Alderman B. J. Bondi who capably was in charge. President Dom Cioffi of the Holy Name society of St. Vitus church expressed his happiness at the wonderful turnout. "You have joined the Holy Name society for your own benefit," he pointed out. "Almighty God holds in his hand your future—and as members of the Holy Name, who serve God, your happiness and welfare is insured."

Rev. Fr. Vincent Bertoline, spiritual director of the Holy Name society has worked diligently since his arrival at the parish, to make the Holy Name strong in number and in spiritual graces. "This is a dream come true to me," he said. "since that day two years ago when 18 members arrived for our first meeting, the Holy Name has grown in size. It is a happy occasion and a most solemn one."

Speaks For Laymen

Dr. John P. Prioletti, a member of the Holy Name, spoke in behalf of the laymen. "Why should you belong to the Holy Name society?" he asked. "Because spiritually it will make you forget your aches and pains. The Holy Name is strong and it makes members feel better in every way," for where there is a large group—there is leadership. Dr. Prioletti spoke briefly of the membership of the Holy Name and commended the various committees for their excellent work in the past.

Officers of the organization were introduced. Honorary president, Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita; spiritual director, Rev. Fr. Vincent C. Bertoline; president, Dom Cioffi; vice-president, W. F. DeCarbo; treasurer, William Russo; secretary, Edward DeCarbo; marshal, Sam Dambrosia; council, Alfonso Scarazzo, Nick Tuscano, Frank Colao and Charles Scaglione; committee program, Francis Augustine; ticket, Nick Tuscano, and transportation, Arthur Budellazze. A special guest attending was William Howley, Sr. grand knight of the local Council of the Knights of Columbus.

Father Foran Speaks

Rev. Fr. Michael A. Foran, C.S.C. of the University of Notre Dame, one of the honored guests made an address.

"There is strength in Catholic action," said Father Foran, "and Catholic action is good Catholic example. Then, too, there is power in Catholic example. As a culmination of many years of striving, the truth has come to realization. You men of the Holy Name," the speaker indicated the audience, "you men have planted the seeds and now you are reaping a full harvest."

He continued: "It isn't so much as what you owe Almighty God. God is all perfect—and therefore it is a mistake to think you are doing anything for Him. But," he explained, "you are doing things for yourself—with the help of God, and you are helping your fellowmen. Without God we have nothing—and are nothing."

Father Foran concluded by urging the men to continue with the best exemplification of their faith, by continuing in the manner as on Sunday morning. "Do this and you will accomplish much."

Fr. DeMita Speaks

Rev. Fr. Nicholas DeMita, pastor of St. Vitus church and honorary pastor congratulated the men that they attended such a glorious event on Father's Day, with "their hearts and souls."

"The world today lacks brotherhood," he declared, "and it is in these troublesome times that we must come forth with strong faith." To the fathers he urged them to set a fine example to their sons. Father DeMita also spoke about the next great speak of St. Vitus parish—the building of a parochial school. "This is my greatest hope and dream," he said. "With the help of the Holy Name Society, St. Vitus parish will not fail in this next venture. He hopes to start building by next March, and to open school the following school term in September."

Two door awards were drawn and Bibles given to Domenick DeCaprio and Bruce Gallick.

Dinner Event

At 5:30 p. m., a dinner was given at Hotel New Penn honoring Rev. Fr. Michael Foran. A brief program was enjoyed.

Evening services at St. Vitus church were conducted at 7:30 o'clock and benediction of the Blessed Sacrament closed the devotions. Afterwards an informal reception was held in St. Vitus church hall, and an interesting program was held. Father Foran spoke, and the Notre Dame football season motion pictures were shown and the All-American guard, John Mastrangelo was present as a guest. Refreshments were served by the committee in charge.

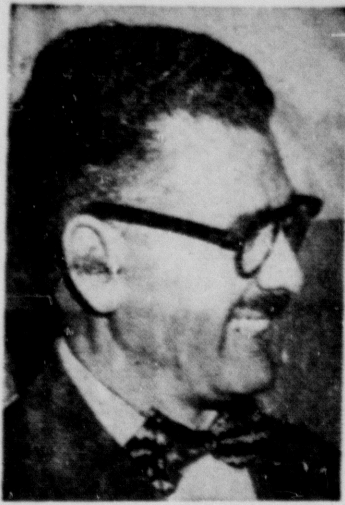

Francis Augustine made the announcement that a benefit event is scheduled for August 15-16 with William Russo in charge. Committees were thanked for their splendid cooperation to make this annual Fathers and Sons Communion breakfast the most successful held thus far.

GARDEN NOTES

Marrows should be picked when about two-thirds grown to be at their best. Older marrows can be used for pies and the rind for preserves.

Fruits of egg plant do not set unless the plants are kept growing steadily. Pinching off the ends of the branches and leaving only two or three blossoms on a branch help the fruits to set.

Most herbs will prove to be more spicy if they are cut and dried just before the flowers open. Dry them in a cool and shady place.

Leaf lettuce will mature, in many sections of the country, if seeded even up to the first week in August.

Be careful when cultivating celery plants to see that no dirt gets in between the stalks or in the heart of the plant.

Six-week beans can be planted in July to give an ample supply for fall use.

Dr. Womer Discusses Summer Months Safety

Probably before you even get past the headline you have the idea. "Oh well, it's just another article on safety. I don't need to read it," then you figure, "I know all about that, it's been talked about so much." If you are guilty of such expressions, you had better change your ideas. Take a look at the headlines of the newspapers sometime and you'll see what I mean. "Crash Kills Ten," "Child Badly Burned," "Fails To Rescue Drowning Friend," every day you can find such items in the paper, and they are just a few of the things that are happening. Because people who think it's "just another article on safety" won't bother to read information that will help to keep them out of serious trouble. So why not give some consideration to this significant problem?

Some Reminders
Dr. William A. Womer, City Health Superintendent, recently disclosed some "do's and don'ts" for summer safety. Why not take time and see if you are guilty of any of the common faults of people which are presented?

Take for example swimming. You may say that all you need is a knowledge of swimming, a bathing suit and some water. Well, that isn't all! First of all, you should learn to swim well. Not only can it be a source of enjoyment, but also of safety. Don't let the idea that if you can swim, you won't drown. Even the very best swimmers may drown. This danger can be lessened, however, if you follow the rules which have been set up for swimmers. Above all, don't swim alone. Then if you ever need help, it will be available. Know the depth of the water in which you are going to swim. You may get everything from a broken neck, by diving into water which is really shallow but looks deep, to maybe diving onto rocks or other obstacles that you may not see in the water.

May Look Glamorous
It may make you look glamorous to have a suntan. But don't overdo it! Also, notice I said "suntan," not "sunburn." Over exposure to the sun rays will result in a bad burn, which is anything but glamorous. This in turn may cause actual sickness, and damage to the tissues of the skin. And some winter day if you find that your hair is beginning to fall out, just think that it is probably the result of too much sun beating on your scalp the summer before. So why stay in the sun till you look like a lobster? It just doesn't pay off in the end.

Have you ever met "Poison Ivy"? Well, if you see a three leaf, spear-like plant don't let it sting you. But if it's leaves, go ahead and shake hands with it! Poison ivy infection can be quite serious. Lack of knowledge and carelessness are the two chief reasons people contract the poison. Everyone at one time or another has been riding along the road and been thirsty for a drink of water. You've probably seen springs or fountains at the side of the road, and stopped for a drink or else thought about stopping. Well, think twice before taking a drink. It may be contaminated water, unfit for drinking purposes. Look first to see if there is a sign or some notice saying that the water is unfit for drinking purposes. Board of Health or Sanitation.

Proper Way To Drive
Nowadays there are more cars than ever before on the highways.

Once again you will probably say that you don't need to be told about the proper way to drive. All right, I'm not "telling" you, just "reminding" you. If you are taking a trip, don't try to see how many miles you can cover in a day, but take your time and really enjoy yourself. Never drive too long at one time. You may get sleepy and the result may be a crash. Stop at different times, get something to eat, or just relax, then continue your journey. Above all, don't drive while under the influence of alcohol, (and I mean influence!) It dulls your sense or timing in fact your sense of everything! And don't let anyone tell you that beer doesn't contain alcohol.

Along with the idea of highway safety comes that of safety right in town. A pedestrian may have the right of way and also a car may be right. What happens? The pedestrian starts across the street, and you start around a corner in your car. Yet you both had the right of way! A good principle to follow is "after you Alphonse." Remember, you can get hurt just as bad if you have the right of way as if you didn't.

For Those Who Perspire
Some of the older residents of this city can remember when the mills were in evidence. Their career here was ended before a discovery was made that is so important now in industry. That is the use of salt for those who perspire a great deal. Men who work in mills take salt tablets to keep up their resistance. Even those who don't work in such warm places should include a little more salt in their diet.

Who doesn't enjoy camping in the woods or a picnic or wiener roast in the country or their own back yard? Then too, how many fires have started from such a venture? Never leave a fire smoldering. You may leave the scene and a spark could find its way to some dry grass or paper. Soon a grass fire or even a forest fire is started. Damage is done to property, and in some instances lives. Watch where you throw your lighted matches and cigarettes. Don't be so smart that you think, "It won't happen to me."

Remember too, that eight hours sleep is as good in the summer as in the winter. Get the proper rest and you'll really be ready to enjoy your vacation.

You don't need a list of what to do or not to do always before you nor do you have to stop and think always "am I doing the

Camp East Brook Opens Tuesday

First Period Of Day Camping At YWCA Camp Begins For Fifty-Two Youngsters

Camp East Brook is ready for the first day campers. On Tuesday, June 21, there will be 52 happy go lucky girls, bag and baggage who will arrive at the camp to spend 12 days full of excitement and fun.

Girls between the ages of six to 10 years of age will be the first to camp at the Y. W. C. A. camp, which has literally been "made over" for the summer.

"Camp fever" will probably be in full pitch tomorrow. It will be fun for the girls to dive into the pool or just to sit by the huge camp fire in the evenings or maybe to take a long hike. At any rate, this year badminton and archery have been added to the usual handicraft, swimming, music and dramatics. It should provide a full two weeks of adventure for the young "campers".

Improvements Made

New plumbing has been installed at the camp and new mattresses have been placed on each bed. Within the last six years great improvements have been noted at the camp but this year young campers will especially find the camp in "tip-top" shape.

Two additional camping periods are slated for this summer. The second will start on July 5, and will be for girls between 10 to 12 years of age; the third period starting July 19 will be for campers between 12 and 16 years of age.

Miss Betty Jane Metzner is the camp director. Swimming instructor will again be Jane Hurst, and Victoria "Vicky" Gizzi is one of the counselors at camp.

Pennsylvania R.R.

Expansion Progress

More than 300 new passenger cars, 140 new Diesel-electric passenger and freight locomotives, 4,000 new freight cars and 426 new Diesel switching locomotives—a major portion of the Pennsylvania railroad's $265,000,000 postwar new equipment and equipment improvement program—are now in service, the railroad announced today in reporting on progress in putting the program into effect.

In addition, 92 passenger cars of 382 programmed have been completely modernized as have 10,400 freight cars of many types of 17,000 programmed, officials said. Thus far, approximately $190,000,000 of the funds required to complete the project have been expended, or three quarters of the total. The program is the largest single project of betterments of any kind ever undertaken in the railroad's 103 years of history. All of the locomotives remaining to be delivered, and all but a few of the passenger cars will be in service by the end of the summer. The program will be entirely completed next year.

Try And Stop Me

By BENNETT CERP

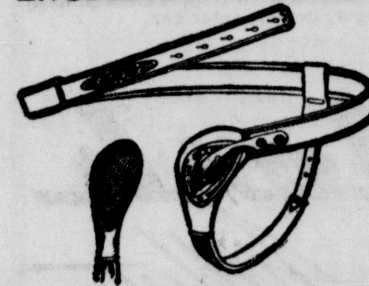

The widow of a confirmed bibliophile, friend of H. C. L. Jackson, slowly read a letter left for her by her husband. "My dearest," he had written, "it has been a sorrow to me that you never shared my interest in rare books; but then, you have been patient. Not too often did you refer to the money I spent on this hobby of mine."

"This note will come to you after I have gone. The mere fact that you are reading it will prove that once at least you have opened one of my favorite books." The note was tucked in her husband's best-loved volume. It was sent to her, without comment, by the dealer to whom she had sold her husband's entire library three days after his death.

Most of you have probably heard what Oliver Herford said when he was asked to evaluate the work of Arnold Bennett: "I'm afraid that something I once wrote about Mr. Bennett in a critical way so prejudiced me against him that I never read another word he wrote." ## "Assignment; America"

By INEZ ROBB
(Reg. U. S. Pat. Off.)
(Distributed By International News Service)

NEW YORK, June 20.—You can take the hay-shaker out of the country, but you can't take the country out of the hay-shaker.

This is one of those ersatz axioms to which New Yorkers, largely refugees from God's country, cling with the tenacity of a crazed leech. They are even ready to prove it the hard way, by embracing square dancing, one of the most lethal pastimes known to man and the reason many hay-shakers hit the high-road to the city in the first place.

A revival of back country rug-cutting is sweeping New York from stem to stern this season despite my deep-seated conviction that only mad dogs and city slickers do square dancing in the mid-summer heat.

Square Dances Popular

I have just learned, chiefly for my own amusement, that thirty-five square dance callers are now making what I can only regard as a dubious living by plying their profession within the confines of New York City. Apparently it is a progressive mania, akin to the dance madness that gripped Europe in the Middle Ages.

Square dancing started in the public parks five seasons ago, under the sponsorship of a soft drink company. But now this passion for bucolic jitter-bugging has seeped out of the parks and made a frontal assault on some of the city's more exclusive lobster palaces. Them as can be welcome to do-si-do at the Stork Club on Monday nights and the Cotillion room at the elegant Pierre hotel, aficionados of the rural American flamenco can "swing her high, swing her low" swing her again and let her go on Tuesday and Friday nights.

The season on square dancing in boroughs opens a week from tonight. Last summer, more than the public parks of the five the public parks of the five boroughs opens a week from tonight. Last summer, more than 160,000 New Yorkers swung their partners in the parks. It is estimated that a million will do a rural stomp this year while the caller hollers "Couple up two, buckle up four, Circle left in the middle of the floor."

Do-do and a little more do. Chicken in the bread pan, pickin' up dough.

With a high diddle-diddle and the cat in the fiddle.

One more change and down the middle."

New Yorkers, both native and naturalized, take to square dancing like a Disney Duck to water, according to the two men in the best position to judge. They are Ed Durlacher, prexy of the Long Island Square Dance Callers' association, and Ralph Tefferteller, who learned to call in the Smoky mountains of East Tennessee, where he was born.

Durlacher, who calls the dances in the city parks, and Tefferteller, who is program director of the famous Henry Street Settlement House and also caller for the Cotillion room hoe-downs, say the city slickers are real good in the country clinics.

After all, any one who can learn to flip a hip in the rumba, can learn to shake a shank in square sets, these two affirm.

Both of these callers adopt the same technique for dealing with the proletariat in the park and the paying customers at the Pierre.

They deal out the simple fundamentals of the back-woods Lindy hop to the city slickers before they attempt to lead them into the intricacies of "the Texas star," for example, an involved square dance from which some novices are unable to unravel themselves for days at a time.

The fiddlin' strains of "Comin' Round the Mountain," "Floppin' Eared Mule," "Arkansas Traveler," "O, Susanna," "John Peel" and "Old Joe Clark" are now almost as familiar to New Yorkers as the once civilized jungle beat of such rumba rhythms as "Peanut Vende-or," "Mama Inez" and "Brazilian Boogie."

The only section of New York that has rudely rejected the hay-shaker's gyrations is Broadway, Roseland, the huge and venerable dance emporium in the Times Square section, tried it out on their devotees over a three week period.

Roseland addicts would have none of this pastoral prance.

"Give it back to the poor lo," yelled the Roselanders, and the management did, although it had a tough time finding an Indian who could take it.

URSULA ROWBOTTOM WEDS P. DOUGHERTY

The marriage of Miss Ursula Rowbottom, daughter of Mrs. Margaret Rowbottom, 316 N. Beaver street, and Paul Joseph Dougherty, son of Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Dougherty, Grandview avenue, was solemnized Saturday morning, June 19, at 10 o'clock in St. Mary's church.

Rev. Fr. Francis King officiated at the nuptial mass, using the single ring ceremony. Philip Dougherty, brother of the groom, and David Vago served the mass.

The church altar, decorated with lovely spring flowers, was flanked by palms and ferns and flanked by the bride and groom. The bride wore a white tulle gown with a full skirt which ended in a long train trimmed with ruffles.

A pillbox cap of satin and lace held in place her fingertip veil of illusion. She carried a white mother-of-pearl prayer book adorned with an orchid and descending streamers.

Maid of honor, Miss Betty Hanon, wore a mint green tulle gown styled with cap sleeves and a back bustle effect, and matching mitts. Her flowers were a mixed colonial bouquet and her hair was of yellow daisies. Best man was the groom's brother, John Dougherty.

Ushers were John Rowbottom and Leo Dougherty. The church organist, Mrs. Josephine Huntley, accompanied soloist Miss Doreen Lynch as she sang "Ave Maria".

A wedding breakfast was held in the basement of the church and an afternoon reception followed at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Aides were Mrs. Robert Watkins, Mrs. Warren Spears, Mrs. Gaylord McEwen, Miss Frances Grieve, Miss Mary E. Hahn and Miss Marie Hanlon.

Later, the young couple left for a wedding trip to Cleveland and Detroit and upon their return will reside at 115 E. Falls street.

HOGUE-McCONAHEY EVENING WEDDING

United Presbyterian church of West Liberty, Pa., was the scene of a beautiful wedding on the evening of June 17th when Miss Marjorie Jean Hogue, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence B. Hogue of R. D. 2, Slippery Rock, became the bride of Norman Eugene McConahy, son of Mr. and Mrs. James E. McConahy of R. D. 1, Volant, Pa. Wedding vows were exchanged at 7:50 p. m. in the presence of a large gathering of friends and relatives. The double ring ceremony was performed by the Reverend Robert O. McCaslin of Torrington, Wyoming, the childhood minister of the bride.

Ferns, palms, and white gladioli with lighted tapers in branched candelabra decorated the altar. The young couple are the first to be married in the little church, which is seventy-three years old. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was lovely in a gown of white marquisette, fashioned with train and chintilly lace outlining the yoke of the fitted bodice and the train. Her fingertip veil, trimmed with lace, fell from a pearl tiara. She carried a bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with satin streamers. Her only jewelry was a ruby ring belonging to her mother. The traditional something old, something new, something borrowed, something blue, and a penny in her shoe was carried out.

The maid of honor, Miss Janet Mayer, a cousin of the bride, was stunning in a gown of blue dotted swiss with a full skirt and fitted bodice. She carried a Colonial bouquet with blue and white matching row of flowers in her hair.

The two bridesmaids, Miss Joy Hutcheson and Miss Donna Hamerschmidt were attractively attired in matching gowns of yellow dotted swiss. Like the maid of honor, the bridesmaids also carried Colonial bouquets with yellow satin streamers, and wore matching headresses of flowers.

Blonde and petite little Gail Lee Poole, niece of the groom, made a charming flower girl as she sprinkled a blanket of rose petals up the aisle in front of the bride.

Earl McConahy, brother of the groom served as best man. Richard Sweet, brother-in-law of the groom, served as an usher, and John L. Lindey, cousin of the bride, also served as an usher.

Ring bearer was Richard Wayne Hogue, brother of the bride.

Following a congratulatory period in the vestibule, a reception took place on the lawn of the bride's home. Refreshments were served buffet style with Miss Norma Mayer of Slippery Rock, Miss Mary Giamarino of New Castle, and Misses Anna and Dorothy McConahy of Volant serving as aides.

Mrs. McConahy is a graduate of Slippery Rock high school and Grove City College, and has been employed with the American Cyanamid Company of New Castle for the past year and a half.

Sharp Decline In Meat Prices

Nationwide Survey Shows That General Wholesale Prices Of Meat Have Declined

CHICAGO, June 20.—(INS)—The American Meat Institute reported today a sharp drop in the wholesale price of meat.

The institute said that a nationwide survey showed that general wholesale prices of all cuts of meat dropped an average of 5 per cent last week over the wholesale prices of the previous week.

The AMI said the general level of wholesale meat prices last week was 14 per cent below the level for the same week a year ago. It added:

"Great declines on the basic wholesale Chicago market were registered in the case of fresh pork loins, which have now dropped about 25 per cent from the peak reached during the first week in June.

"Good lamb carcasses at wholesale have dropped nearly 20 per cent from prices of a week ago and wholesale beef prices remained 20 to 25 per cent below a year ago."

Retail meat prices, the AMI found, declined moderately last week after having advanced steadily for several weeks. Beef cuts bucked the trend and remained about the same price.

State Sanitoria Request Nurses

Nurse Shortage Causes Empty Beds At Three State Tuberculosis Hospitals

Waiting lists of patients at three Pennsylvania Tuberculosis sanatoria could be completely eliminated if adequate numbers of trained nurses were available, according to an announcement by Dr. Norris W. Vaux, state secretary of health, Harrisburg.

There are over 600 tuberculosis victims in the state at present who have applied for admission to Mount Alto, Cresson or Hamburg sanatoria. All of these institutions have bed space available but they cannot accommodate any more patients because of the staff shortages in nurses.

Dr. Vaux has issued an appeal through the local tuberculosis societies to procure at least one nurse from each of the 67 counties in the commonwealth.

Any trained nurse in the county who is interested in helping to make the bed space available to tuberculosis sufferers and have a good job at the same time is requested to contact the Lawrence County Tuberculosis society in the Greer building.

Meter Service Operator Now Has City Car

Parking meter system having been increased recently by the city, council deemed it feasible to acquire an auto for Arthur Harris, meter service operator and collector of coins. The parking meter system which has been in existence in the Washington street district, recently was expanded to take in the Long avenue district. The car now makes it possible for Mr. Harris to make adjustments as soon as a meter is reported out of service. The rear of the auto has been arranged as a "work shop". In making collection of thousands of nickels, pennies and dimes, the new car makes it possible for Mr. Harris to transport the money to the treasury office more easily and quicker. Before he was assigned the car, Mr. Harris had to walk to the various meters and to carry a heavy bag containing the parking fees. The car cost the city $825.

Around Hollywood

By FRANK NEILL
(International News Service Staff Correspondent)

HOLLYWOOD, June 20.—Charles Lemaire, a fashion designer who stayed awake nights figuring how he could undress Betty Grable and still keep her respectable, is the happiest guy in Hollywood.

He achieved his purpose. In Miss G's next flicker, 20th Century-Fox studios will show more inches of the beautiful blonde than at any time in her screen career.

"This," said Lemaire, "will be the ultimate ultimate, we can never go further."

When we cornered contented Charlie, Betty was singing "I Wish I Could Shimmy Like My Sister Kate." And she was making with a shimmy like Kate never could have done.

Can't Sit Down
Miss Grable was wearing nude and gold-fringed leopard tights.

The costume shimmied right along with the Grable chassis. It was tighter than her own skin, she said, because she could sit down in her own skin but she couldn't sit down in the nude and gold-fringed tights.

Old-timers on the set of "Wabash Avenue" finally caught their breath and avowed publicly the shimmy never had ever before been shimmed like Grable shimmed it. Not even by Gilda Gray.

Lemaire whipped up 14 costume designs for the curvaceous cutie to sport in the film. Twelve of them are guaranteed to show more than her trim ankle.

Learned Lesson

"The studio," said the designer, "has learned its lesson. Once it covered the Grable legs for a thing called 'The Shocking Miss Pigskin' but the cash customers got the shock. They were down-right mad."

"Betty can lift any outfit to great beauty," Lemaire went on. "She knows how to manipulate her legs. Her leg movements ripple right into her feet and no matter how she moves the costume goes where it is supposed to go. She is a designer's dream."

Miss G. portrays a honky-tonk dancer, in the year 1893, for the technicolor flicker which has Vic Mature and Phil Harris parked in the front row pew every night. The lucky fellas.

Good Old Daze
Lemaire wishes he were living back in 1893.

"It was one of the most flattering periods for women's clothes," he said. "Everything looked good. The minute you have puffed sleeves and a tiny waistline, you achieve a divinely feminine look. Still, in 1893, we wouldn't have had Grable."

Lemaire thinks it's a downright dirty shame the way everybody talks about Betty's legs and figure. "She's got a wonderful face," he said. "Or had you noticed? Perfect texture. Fine delicate coloring. White gold hair... well, she has, anyway."

Donati Students Hold Recitals

Wife Has 'Say-So' On Vacation Site

HARTFORD, Conn., June 20.—(INS)—It's the wife who decides where a family will spend its vacation, W. J. Robinson, general manager of the Automobile Club of Hartford, says that the women in a family "either make the vacation decision outright, or in more subtle fashion, influence the husband to make the correct choice."

Experienced travel counselors, Robinson says, believe that the father of the family "serves primarily in an advisory capacity."

New York—Streetcars, trolley coaches and buses operated by urban transit systems in the U. S. travel more than 8,000,000 miles daily.

The U. S. Navy's huge transport "Constitution" can clear a 50-foot obstacle, land and stop in only 2,300 feet.

Frank Stranahan Will Play In British Open

By LAWTON CARVER
(International News Service Sports Editor)

NEW YORK, June 17.—Frank Stranahan, the well-known amateur golfer, is on his way again today winging in the general division of the British open golf championship.

"Of course, I think I'll win it, or I wouldn't be going over to England," Stranahan said. "I have been playing real well lately, and I'm going to enter the French open for a final tuneup before the British open. I will be glad to get back over there and into the British event."

WON BRITISH AMATEUR
"It was on that same course, Royal St. Georges at Sandwich, that I won the British amateur last year."

Stranahan lost his British amateur crown a few weeks ago but thinks he has a great chance in the open any way despite the fact that he will be facing off against the best of the British professionals as well as amateurs.

He came within a stroke of the British open two years ago when Fred Daly of Ireland won. The cocky, blond-headed Stranahan has been established as an 8 to 1 second choice in the forthcoming event. Bobby Locke, the South African, who will fly over next Monday, is the favorite at 7 to 1. Henry Cotton will defend the title.

Only American Stranahan presumably is the only American who will compete in the British event, which is scheduled for July 4-8. He goes into competition as holder of the Canadian, Mexican and North and South amateur titles. He also won the last Miami open.

Middlecoff-Mangrum Share Golf Honors

DETROIT, June 20.—(INS)—A stubborn will to win was credited today with making national open champion Dr. Cary Middlecoff and Lloyd Mangrum co-champions of the Motor City open golf tournament.

The Memphis, Tenn., dentist and the Niles, Ill., pro apparently were not satisfied with the 72-limit set for the four-day contest. After completing the regulation tournament with a tie 273, the two golfers pushed into a sudden death playoff.

For 11 overtime holes, the weary—but fighting—contestants remained tied. Finally, darkness fell over the Meadowbrook course. Middlecoff and Mangrum then agreed to share the honors and collect $2,150 each as the co-champions.

Charley Gehringer Honeymooning Today

SAN JOSE, Cal., June 20.—(INS)—Charley Gehringer, one of baseball's all-time greats, is on an extended honeymoon today with his bride, the former Miss Josephine Stullen, of Detroit.

The erstwhile Detroit Tiger second baseman and Miss Stullen were married secretly late Saturday after hectic efforts to avoid publicity.

The couple will live in Detroit, where the 46-year-old Gehringer is a manufacturer's representative and his 30-year-old bride is a secretary at the Nesh-Kelvinator company.

Last week Gehringer was enshrined in baseball's Hall of Fame in Cooperstown, N. Y.

Reese And Gordon Are Poll Leaders

CHICAGO, June 20.—(INS)—Shortstop Pee Wee Reese of the Brooklyn Dodgers and third-baseman Sid Gordon of the New York Giants held the leads in their respective races in the All-Star baseball pool today.

Reese has 98,726 of the 416,733 fan votes cast thus far, to 94,302 for Marty Marion of the St. Louis Cardinals. Gordon leads the Cards' Ed Kazak 97,316 to 93,204.

The vote will designate the starting lineups, except pitchers, for the National and American League teams in the annual classic at Brooklyn, July 12.

ROBINSON-HUDSON BATTLE TONIGHT

PROVIDENCE, R. I., June 20.—(INS)—Sugar Ray Robinson, world welterweight boxing champion, meet Cecil Hudson of San Jose, Cal., in a non-title 10-rounder at Rhode Island auditorium tonight.

Robinson is scheduled to defend his title next month in Philadelphia against Kid Gavilan of Cuba. Robinson knocked out Hudson in six rounds in Detroit in 1946.

YOUNG AUTO RACER KILLED IN ILLINOIS

DEKALB, Ill., June 20.—(INS)—Rogers Frank, 20-year-old "hot rod" racer of Elgin, Ill., was killed last night when his souped-up car went out of control in a race at Prather's field in DeKalb and was hit by another racer.

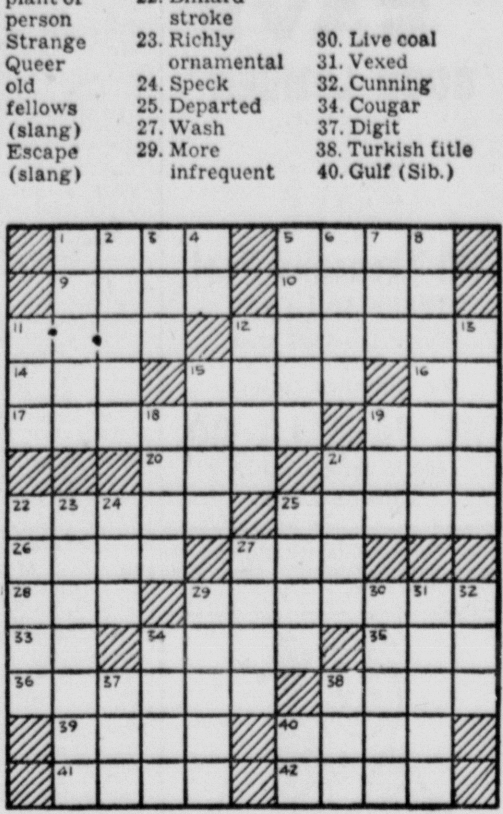

Frank was hurled 30 feet through the air in the impact.

New Castle And Erie Sailors Will Play Twin-Bill Here Tonight

Wagner-Giardullo Will Do Pitching

New Castle and Erie will play a twin-bill at Flaherty Memorial Field tonight, the first game starting at 7 o'clock.

The Nats didn't fare too well over the week-end losing to Johnstown, 9-8 Saturday and 8 to 1 Sunday, to extend their losing streak to six straight.

Wagner and Giardullo
Manager Billy Mongiello has nominated the veteran Frank Wagner and Mike Giardullo to do the Nats hurling tonight. Giardullo will go in the first game, a seven-inning affair and Wagner will try this ninth win in the second game. Wagner started Saturday night against Johnstown and gave way to Bob Cook, in the sixth inning, with Cook being charged with the defeat, after New Castle tied the game up in the sixteenth inning.

Herb Churchill started the Sunday game and gave way to Adolph Anderson in the fourth, with Churchill being the loser. Anderson, a new right-hander, from Providence, Rhode Island, looked good in relief, giving up but six hits and one run for the last five innings.

The crippled Nats minus Manager Mongiello, Gene Bilo and Tony Mirande, played hard and fast but were not able to match the Johnnies. New Castle left a total of 25 men stranded on the base paths.

Kiel Hits Sixth Homer
Herman Kiel the big first baseman, hit his sixth homer for New Castle, in the Saturday night game, in the fifth inning, with no mates aboard.

Manager Mongiello entered a protest on the infield fly ruling by Umpire Kokinechak in the third inning of the Saturday night game. Reed Maier hit a Texas leaguer back of second, Schroeder the Johnnies shortstop and Brophy the center-fielder both tore after the ball, collided and lay on the ground the ball falling safe, but Maier was ruled out and the runners Feltman and Tufts were allowed to advance a base. A heated argument followed but the umpires stayed with their guns. The protest followed.

Johnnies Hit Homers
The Johnstown players went on a home run spree over the week-end banging out four round-trippers—Manager Roy Nichols and Palumbo belted them out of the park Saturday, and Brophy and Al Schroeder hit four-basers yesterday.

Johnstown collected 30 base hits in the two games and made them count for 17 runs. New Castle made 22 hits and got but nine runs. The Nats were just not hitting at opportune times. New

Climb To Within A Half-Game Of First Place By Coming From Behind Sunday

Hillsville climbed to within a half game of first place in the County League Sunday by downing St. Lucy, 6 to 5. Wampum, meanwhile, lost to Koppel, 5 to 2.

In the former game the old rivals from the same town engaged in a wide-open slugfest. Seven of the 16 hits went for extra bases.

St. Lucy got off to a 3-run lead in the first two innings, but Hillsville got one in their half of the second and went ahead to stay with a pair in the sixth and three more in the seventh. St. Lucy, shut out for five straight innings, got two in the eighth to make it a close game, but couldn't quite tie it up.

D. Micco was the only participant to get three hits. Two of his went for doubles. Cracraft also doubled. B. Penwell hit a three-base clout and homers were registered by Schaville, Grist and Romeo.

St. Lucy plays at Wampum tonight.

HERE AND THERE IN SPORTS' LAND

THROWING MONEY AWAY?
New Castle, June 16, 1949.

Here and There, Mr. Owen Fox, Mr. Herman Steinbrink, Gentlemen:

Don't you think that stocking of trout in the month of June in streams, such as the Big Run, Taylor Run, Little Neshannock and Deer creeks, is only pouring money down a hole? If they wish to stock Rainbow trout, wouldn't a lake, like Pleasant Lake, be suitable for Rainbow trout?

Why they will stock a stream around here in June with 2,500 and 4,000 trout, I never could see.

Have you ever saw trout on a spawn in these streams that they stock?

In our cold water streams not too far from here which are ideal for trout such as Big Mill Creek, Forest county, east and south branches of the Tionesta, I have seen a big Brown trout on spawn, while hunting around Sheffield, Pa.

Mr. Fox, do these big Brown trout on spawn hatch? If so, why do they not stock more trout in these waters.

At Sunday, when I was on the south branch of the Tionesta, at Sheffield, the mercury was 90. I saw kids that were in swimming who complained that the water was too cold and that they could not stay in very long. Still they stock these with 100 trout at a stocking, or 500. Why is it that ideal streams are less stocked?

It seems that every year conditions become worse. Pennsylvania was noted for its fishing but not any more. In Ohio, they have artificial lakes which swarm with fish, yet our license fee is boosted. We pay more than Ohio fishermen, do we not? Come on you fisherman, let's hear your version.

(Signed) GEORGE MASKO, 508 East Friendship Street.

Reed Newell, North Mercer street barber shop proprietor, is a baseball fan, and an avid reader of baseball news hence, when he came across the Baseball News, published at Springfield, Ills., which told of a "half home run" being hit, he gave it to Here & There, believing it would be interesting reading to fans, which, no doubt it will be. The story, as carried in The Baseball News reads: "ever hear of a half-home run?" Will Bryson of Des Moines relays the story of the game some years ago between two Missouri teams, Cascade and Buckhorn. Cascade was leading 1-0, with two out in the last of the ninth when a Buckhorn hitter smashed a fly that had all the ear-marks of a circuit clout. The left fielder backed up against the fence for a desperate, leaping effort. Just as he leaped, the ball split in two, one half being spear by the fielder—and the other half sailing over the wall! The umpire, caught in the middle of a furious, near-riotous debate, got out from under with this decision. He declared Cascade the winner, by half a run! . . . And by the way what would Tom Conti, Griffith, Rotunno, and other local umpires rule, in such a case, were it to happen here?
